Do YOU Pelmanise?

Have you ever properly realised the fact that in your brain you possess the finest money-making machine in the world?

There is practically no limit to the income-earning powers of the mind when it is keyed up to the highest pitch of efficiency of which it is capable.

By training your mind to greater efficiency you can put yourself in the way of earning twice, three times, four times the amount you make at present.

In every profession, business, and occupation there is a demand for men and women with scientifically trained minds.

Over 500,000 men and women have already been trained to greater efficiency by the famous Pelman System, which develops just those qualities of Concentration, Memory, Initiative, Ideation, Self-Confidence, and Administrative Power which are in the greatest demand to-day.

THE PELMANOMETER

Over 100,000 British and Dominion Officers and Men have studied the Course, including 150 Admirals and Generals.

By training your mind on the Pelman System you can do better work (and better paid work) with infinitely less effort.

A Course of Pelman Training is the finest of all mental exercises. It develops your mind as physical training develops your muscles. It is most fascinating to follow and takes up very little time. It is taught by post and can be followed anywhere.

Royal Yakuti.

This Yakuti or life giving nectar has been prepared from the best, choicest, and richest vegetable drugs. It has wonderful properties of increasing virile power and it rectifies urinary disorders. In fact it makes man a man. This valuable medicine is used in large quantities not only by Your Ruler, Maharajas, Nawabs and many of this nobility, aristocracy and gentry in this Country, but it is greatly patronised by people in all countries of Europe, America, Asia and Africa. It is needless to expatiate upon the magical qualities of this our invaluable medicine. We recommend it especially to those persons who desire to tone the nervous system, to strengthen the body, refresh their memory and to guard against debility. Suffice it to say that the use of this medicine is recommended to those who have any faith in the Ayurvedic medicines. It works like a charm and the effect is lasting. It replaces lost power and rejuvenates the emaciated and it is enough to say that musk is not that which a perfumer admires. It is that which diffuses fragrance of its own accord. Price per tin containing 40 pills, Rupees ten only (Rs. 6d.)

CHEMICALS.

(From our Correspondent.)

June 29.

The activity in the Chemical market is as good as that of the last week. Sodium has not been in stock for a long time and again goods arrived per ss Inveric are almost booked forward and hence the intensity of inquiry. Zinc Chloride has also good demand and it has an upward tendency as the home quotations are high. Other Chemicals do not rule so firm and the quotations are almost the same as quoted last time.

MILL-STORES.

(From our Correspondent.)

June 29.

As reported last time upward tendency is noticeable in almost all sundries. Healds are in very good demand and as the greater of the ready stock is consumed and the home quotation being higher than the ruling rates here, it is very likely that values of Healds will still advance. Reeds have no very large demand and the transactions pass at nearly 3 to 4 annas per 100 dents.

COLOUR MARKET.

(From our Correspondent.)

June 29.

The quotations are:—
Congo-Red, Rs. 3-12 to 4-8 per lb.
Magenta Crystals, Rs. 17 to 18 per lb.
Magenta Powder, Rs. 14 per lb.
Alizarine, Rs. 1,600/1,700 per drum.
Methyl Violet, Rs. 10 per lb.
Auramine, Rs. 8 to 9 per lb.
Benzo Purpurine, Rs. 6 to 7 per lb.
Melachite Green, Rs. 10 per lb.
Sulphur Black, Re. 1 to 1-12 per lb.

CALCUTTA SHARE MARKET.

(Associated Press.)

CALCUTTA, June 28.

The market opened to-day with a better tone and there appeared to be more disposition to do business than has been case recently. Jute shares were firm and prices generally had an upward tendency. There was a little better demand for coal shares, New Tetturya, Burrakur and Standard being in request. In miscellaneous section there were buyers of flour shares United being done up to Rs. 33-8 and Bengal Rs. 560, Indian Iron and Steel new shares registered an advance closing at Re. 9-12 premium. There were buyers of Burmah Finance up to close without finding much scrip. Cawnpore textile were turned over at 0-8 annas premium. Market will be closed at 2 p.m. to-morrow. The following were the closing quotations:—

STANDARD BAROMETER READING.

The following information is published in order that vessels in the Bombay Harbour may by comparison with a standard instrument ascertain the errors of their barometer:—

The reading of the Standard Barometer in the Colaba Observatory corrected for index error and reduced to 80 deg. F. and to the level of the tide at 0-45 a.m., Standard Time on the 29th June 1920 was 29.665 inches. For temperature corrections applicable to mercurial barometer of ships the reading of the ship's barometer has to be increased or decreased by 0.13 inch for every 5 degrees according as the temperature of the attached thermometer is respectively below or above 80 deg. F. In case of the aneroid the temperature correction is needed but for comparison at 80 deg. F. all aneroid readings should be increased by 1.38 inch. For correcting the ship's barometer either mercurial or aneroid for the height of the barometer cistern above the tide in the stream at 0-42 a.m., Standard Time the ship's barometer readings should be increased by 0-10 inch for every 10 feet of the height to make it comparable with the observatory barometer reading given.

THE NEXT CENSUS.

18TH MARCH 1921.

The following resolution, of the Government of India (Department of Education) dated Simla June 14, is published:

The last decennial census was taken in 1911 and it has already been announced that arrangements have been taken in hand for the carrying out of the next census in 1921. Mr. J. T. Marten, I.C.S., was appointed Census Commissioner for India and took over charge of his duties in October 1919. As on previous occasions a special Act has been passed to provide for certain matters in connection with the taking of the census and received the assent of the Governor-General on the 25th February 1920.

2. The night of the 18th of March 1921 has been fixed for the census of India. This date on the whole fulfils the essential conditions required to secure the enumeration under the most convenient circumstances of the normal population and has been generally accepted by local Governments and Indian States. There will be moonlight between 7 p.m. and midnight and, except in Ajmer, where special arrangements will have to be made, no important festivals or gatherings are known to take place at that time. Some local Governments have expressed preference for an earlier date—the 18th of February; but that date was reported to be impossible in the Madras Presidency on account of large religious gatherings to be held at that time; extremely inconvenient in Burma, where the agricultural population would be engaged in the harvest and scattered over the fields; and unsuitable in the hilly portions of the north of the country, where the probability of snow and the certainty of extreme cold would be factors adverse to the success of the operations.

3. A copy of the Census Enumeration Book in the form in which it will be issued to enumerators is appended to this resolution. The schedule is practically the same as that used at the last census and the main instructions to the enumerators, which are printed on the cover and will be supplemented by more detailed instructions given through Charge Superintendents and Supervisors, follow closely the lines approved on that occasion. The household schedule for issue to those who are accustomed to fill up the schedule for themselves and their families has been retained; but experience has proved, both in India and in other countries, that the system of household schedules is inferior as a means of securing accurate information to that under which the schedule is written up by a trained enumerator and it is intended that the household schedules should be used as sparingly as possible.

4. In connection with the census of 1911 discretion was given to local Governments to determine whether information regarding the sect of religion (other than Christian sects) should be collected in any province. The Government of India consider that it is unnecessary on the present occasion to load the statistics with details of sects unless there are special reasons for particular sects. It will be advisable, for example, to distinguish between the [illegible] divisions of Sunnis and Shias in Hindu sects, which [illegible] themselves off from one another, the one arguing for the thought, many [illegible] saying that there The matter [illegible] in increasing insion, to the [illegible] enditure of the Christian [illegible] of permanent as on previous [illegible] country. COUNCIL ELECT...

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CH...

Sir,—I shall feel much obliged ... give publicity to the following in yo... read paper.

The survey of the progress of t... will demonstrate that there are two ... which regulate and govern the world-forces. The first of these is heaven-made, while the second is man-made. The higher law is always visible in vindication of the principle of justice and righteousness for which it is reported Britain and her Allies brought to a successful termination the world-war. Providence desires to see His purpose fulfilled, sometimes through individuals while at others through certain institutions. Passing through political evolution we are hopeful that countries standing in the rear shall have at a particular time a chance to be in the vanguard. Britain to my mind is honourable, honest, and diligent trustee and custodian of the interests of the countries under her ward. The pronouncement of August 1917 by His Majesty's Government stirred through the sense of righteousness clearly indicated that Britain desired to see India advance. And the pronouncement took a tangible shape in the Montford Reform Scheme. Whoever may rush forward to take the credit of good done to India is to my mind to be attributed to nothing else but to the design of the Guider of the destinies of men, and consciousness and fully-awakened sense of duty and responsibility of the people for whom the scheme has been framed. The Evolution must have its unceasing working and results. Time in its own course must give opportunities to nations which were up till now deprived of their birth-rights and well-deserved privileges and honour which were their due. The Reform Scheme has been the object of much criticism and comment and has been declared at one end to be satisfactory while at the other disappointing. Apart both from the merits and demerits of the scheme, one thing is certain that India has got a wider franchise and louder voice in her administrative affairs and it is now to be seen how it is exercised in the New Councils. The elected members of the new councils carry with them too many grave responsibilities and those from among them will come to be appointed as Ministers will be none the less exempt from still greater responsibilities. The reformed councils will have to face innumerable problems in new light and there will be paramount urgency of extending the sphere of activities in several directions, especially in matters of education, sanitation, agriculture, excise, forest, trade and commerce etc. These and such kindred problems must engage the best attention of the Elected members and until every individual, male or female, is educated, the cry for education will not cease. Primary and secondary education must be made free and compulsory and the elected members will have to fight hard for getting a greater grant for education in the annual provincial and Imperial budgets. The long-neglected problem of Sanitation will also demand serious and careful handling. In Agriculture the practice of periodical revision of assessment requires to be ended and a system of permanent settlement be substituted, so that the agriculturists may be induced to improve [illegible] their lands. BOLSHEVIST RULE AT BAKU.

'NATIONALISATION' SYNONYMOUS WITH ROBBERY.

BRITISH AND FRENCH CONCULS ARRESTED.

A DUTCH CONSUL'S STORY.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

BAGDAD, June 28.
Recd. 1-5 p.m., June 29.

M. Manassen, who last February became Consul for the Netherlands at Baku and Batum and assumed charge of the interests of the Royal Dutch and Shell oil combine at those places, has just passed through Bagdad on his way to Holland.

In the course of an interview M. Manassen said that he was at Baku on April 28th when the Bolshevists with the connivance of the officials of the Azerbaijan Republic assumed control of that town. M. Manassen was not prepared to speak fully with regard to his experiences as he explained that he would have first to report to his Government, but he expressed in the strongest possible terms the condemnation of the Bolshevik rule at Baku, which, he said, was autocracy of most tyrannical description. The people were allowed no liberty, justice or rest. Houses and other property were confiscated without any suggestion of compensation to the owners and the term 'nationalisation' became synonymous with robbery.

The plant and stores of the Shell Company were among the property thus "nationalised" and owing to unrest in the country the pipe line to Batum could not be worked. The oil stores of the Shell and other companies were being despatched in the Company's barges to Astrakhan.

Within a few weeks of the start of the Bolshevist rule, the shops, which had previously been well stocked, became comparatively empty and the prices had greatly increased. Food was now obtainable with at extortionate price. Public Baku strongly condemned the sale. WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

THE DEAN'S APPEAL FOR FUND.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

LONDON, June 28.
Recd. 1 p.m., June 29.

The Dean of the Westminster Abbey in a letter to the press earnestly appeals to English-speaking world to subscribe a quarter of million sterling for the upkeep of the Westminster Abbey which, he says, is in danger of entering upon the phase of steady structural deterioration.

In the course of his appeal for funds for the Westminster Abbey the Dean of Westminster says that the funds of the Dean and the Chapter no longer suffice for the upkeep of the Abbey. The King has contributed a thousand sterling and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners £10,000. A hundred thousand pounds are required for immediate structural repairs and the remainder will constitute a fund to keep the Abbey in complete repair in future.

The trustees of the fund will be the Governor of the Bank of England, the Marquis of Salisbury and Sir Robert Hudson. The Dean points out that the space available in the Abbey for the commemoration of the Honoured Dead has become exceedingly limited and unless removal of many of less important memorials from the Abbey to the Cloister is authorised some other means of commemorating the Empire's most illustrious dead will have soon to be obtained. A great scheme has been suggested whereby space could be obtained and a splendid view of the Abbey from th south-east be secured for ever if a generu response to this appeal yields more than quarter of a million. The surplus would devoted to the purchase of a property adja cent to the Abbey enabling in future an necessary scheme sanctioned by the senti ment of the people to be carried out.

Contributions should be addressed to th Dean of Westminster, Deanery, West minster Abbey, and envelopes marke "Westminster Abbey Fund." Chequ should be made out to the Dean of West minster or Bearer and crossed Bank England. A roll containing the names all contributors of five sterling and up wards will be preserved among the histori documents of Abbey.

BOMBAY PARSIS AND R FORMS.

DEMAND FOR REPRESENTATION

The following resolution has been f
warded to H. E. the Governor by th
Council of the Parsi Central Association:—

The Parsi Central Association respectfully urge upon His Excellency the Governor in-Council the extreme desirability of ar ranging the electorate for the City o Bombay in such a way as to secure to th Parsi community a fair opportunity for representation on the Provincial Legislative Council.

In the memorial submitted by a large number of leading Parsis to His Excellency the Viceroy and the Right Hon. the Secretary of State for India, the memorialists stated that they did not believe in the principle of separate representation, but that if such representation wa conceded to other communities, the interests of the Parsis should be adequately safeguarded.

The Parsi Central Association regret to observe that the claims of the community which enjoys a very important position in the country in spite of the insignificance of its numbers have so far been entirely ignored, perhaps, because, they have not been voiced with sufficient persistence and vehemence.

The Association believe that it is not too late to repair to some extent the injur that has been done to the interests of the Parsis, and they respectfully but strongly urge that the electorate for the city of Bombay may be arranged in accordanc with the recommendations of the represen tatives of the rate-payers on the Corporation, who were recently invited to an informal conference at the Secretariat.

The Association are of opinion that the city should be divided into two electoral areas, with the A, C & D Wards grouped into one division, and B, E, F, and G Wards grouped into another, and that fou seats should be allotted to the first division and two seats to the second, in ac cordance with the voting strength of eac division, and they urge that such an arrangement, apart from being equitable, is imperatively demanded in the interests of a community, which may be regarded as one of the most important minorities in the country, and whose exclusion from the Councils would be regrettable alike in the interests of the State and of itself.

The following resolution has been also passed by the Council of the Parsi Central Association:

"The Parsi Central Association strongly protests against reservation of two seats in Bombay City mentioned in your letter No. S. W. 57 dated the 22nd instant as calculated to impair still further the very restricted opportunities of the Parsi community for representation on the Council If reservation is essential two seats should also be reserved for Parsis whose interests require safeguarding just as much as those of several other communities whom Government have thought fit to protect in one way or another.

The Association invite reference to their previous resolution and hope that Government will even now make adequate provision for a community whose interests have so far been thoroughly and most unaccountably ignored."

"HAVE NO CONCERN WITH KHILAFAT MOVEMENT."

MAHARAJAH SCINDIA'S "ADVICE"

H. H. the Maharajah Scindia of Gwalior recently performed the opening ceremony of Ahmad Shafi Mosque, in the Public Park, Gwalior. After offering a few conventional remarks and giving a history of the Mosque, His Highness said:

"Gentlemen, you know that so far as places of worship are concerned, almost all religions are represented in this park and I consider this fact as of good omen not only for Lashkar but for the whole State. For I trust that this would result in creating a spirit of toleration and religious harmony in people of different faiths; and this is essential for the all-round advance of a country.

Gentlemen, you will probably remember that two or three years ago, I had remarked that in the end all of us whether Mahomedans Hindus or others professing other faiths have to reach the same goal (shouts of Subhan Allah). I feel strengthened in my conviction by your spontaneous applause. Yes, I am sure we are right in believing that although we travel along different roads we converge, on to the same destination. How can there be any question that every human being, whether a Mahomedan, a Hindu, a Christian, a Parsee, a Buddhist or the follower of any other religion, was created by the one Eternal God, who is but called by different names (shouts of Subhan Allah). I am glad to find that you agree with this proposition also and I trust that you will, as readily, accept what I am now going to tell you, with due deference and that you will accept it, not because it is going to fall from my lips but because you find a response to it in your hearts. Well, then is it too much to hope that in this Park people of different religious persuasions shall worship their Diety according to their respective beliefs and shall never suffer any disputes and disturbances? I have taken the lead in making this ideal possible, but the responsibility for its attainment lies with you all of different religions; and may God grant you the grace to realise it. You must clearly understand the object I have in view, which is that there should be unity and co-operation, and that all should live holy lives according to the dictates of their own religions and yet with all as brothers. No religion teaches its followers to fight nor that varying practices should be used as excuses for quarrels, and yet the ringing of bells by one community has served to rally the audgelled braves of another. When worshippers in temples ring their bells in mosques, and the mosque congregations raise their calls to prayers in a temple then it may be time enough to exhibit resentment. But why ever otherwise? The relations of communities in the matter of the public pursuit of their religious practices should be those of neighbours in cities, where one does his Namaz and other performs his Puja in his house, without any molestation or quarrel.

His Highness proceeded. In the present times, leaders are superabundant and the shallowest knowledge or even the slightest pretensions to learning are sufficient qualification for that position. But alas! our leaders are too often inspired by feeling of personal aggrandisement and for such it is easy enough to create disputes and disturbances in the names of religion. For my own part, I fail to understand, how people fall into the snares of such and become blind to their own interests. Gentlemen, you are all learned wise people and can discriminate between what is for your good and what is not. But even the most ignorant generally understand what is to their interest. The butchers, green grocers, weavers and the rest of the people of that class who are ever ready to fight on the slenderest of excuses, also know their interests well. If I were to ask a butcher to sell me ten seers of meat for one rupee, while the market rate is annas eight per seer, do you think he would do it? Surely not. Then how is it that this good sense deserts him on other occasion in life For let one of the leaders only inflame his passion and he will create disturbance, regardless of consequences to his helpless wife and his innocent children. What a sad spectacle!

KHILAFAT MOVEMENT.

Now see how the Khilafat question is to the fore at the present time. The intelligent and the ignorant are all taking a lively interest in it. But how many are there who have tried to understand the complexities of the Khilafat question? What is its bearing and what its significance and how many aspects does the question not possess; how many standpoints can it not be viewed from?

If people here think that in the event of trouble befalling Turkey (which God forbid) they should in manifesting their active sympathy wit hthat country annihilate themselves. It is a mistake. I humbly request you to consider what that country did for India when the latter was involved in trouble.

Even ten years ago there were no such situations to be met with in India as at present. What then is the reason of the present all pervading excitement?

I know when this speech of mine is reported in the papers it won't command universal approval. But like so many others, I also hold independent opinions about questions and I wish to express them quite plainly. It is not wise to create disturbances, to bring trouble upon oneself or to involve one's dependents in misery by playing into the hands of self-seekers, and fame-hunters and of those anxious to win applause at the expense of other people's money. I appeal to my subjects to have no concern with any such movement as the Khilafat movement. Standing before this mosque and calling upon God as my witnes, I warn you that the result of foolishness is bad. It will be a grievous shock to me to find any of my subjects involved in trouble on account of committing such a mistake.

Gentlemen, no one of us will live for ever Therefore, let us live our lives piously and wisely. Here before this House of God, I beg of you to take into consideration your own condition and that of your country and to make every single act of yours conducive to the latters good. If you will not forget God, if you will follow your religion and if you will also listen to the counsels of one to whom Providence has entrusted the care of you you will prosper in every way and with your prosperity and good name are indissolubly linked mine.

It is possible that the educated people of the present day may not agree with me. They are quite welcome to hold their own views. As a Ruler I consider it my duty to inform my subjects what I believe to be for their good. With this my duty ends. Of course, every body is at liberty to act as he likes. But as the proverb goes, "as you sow so shall you reap."

BAN AGAINST A MOSLEM PREACHER

(From our Correspondent.)
DELHI, June 29.
Maulana Ahmad Said, a Secretary of the Khilafat Committee, Delhi, invited to address a religious meeting at Dehra Dun was, on reaching his destination, served with a notice under the D. I. A., prohibiting him "to enter, reside or remain in any area within the limits of the District of Dehra Dun". He arrived there at 12 noon on Saturday and was permitted to await on the platform the next train back to Delhi.

The Maulana complied with the notice and has addressed the following telegram to the Lieut.-Governor: "I emphatically protest against the allegation contained in the notice under the D. I. A. served on me on the 26th June. The object of my visit was purely religious, as I was invited to preach at an annual gathering. I definitely repudiate the allegation that I was "acting or was about to act in a manner prejudicial to public safety"—nothing further from the truth; and I have been quite unjustifiably debarred from a purely religious purpose. I pray for the withdrawal of the order or shall be obliged for an opportunity to discover the basis of the vague allegation namely, "was acting or was about to act" etc! Otherwise I shall be constrained to regard it a mere subterfuge to legalise an otherwise indefensible interference with constitutional freedom."

METHODS OF BOMBAY SHARE BA...

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Your commercial reporter has rightly commented, in your last Saturday's issue on the arbritrary manner the Bombay Share Bazaar is frequently closed on the smallest excuse without the slight regard for the annoyance the public is put to. Hardly any business has been done in the bazaar this month owing to this. When opened these hard working men the brokers, found it impossible to do more than an hour's work, and for the last ten days it has been closed completely. Brokers frequently complain that some of their clients give trouble to pay. Is there any wonder about this when the unfortunate public has to deal with such a slovenly lot? What do they care about the loss of their clients so long that they have secured their brokerage. The methods of the Share Bazaar do make one disgusted to do business with people who only care for their own interest and have not the slightest interest in the plight of their clients. Imagine, Sir, the position of the public who may have bought or sold shares this month. Owing to the frequent closure of the bazaar there is no time left to close the business of this settlement with the result that the public is exposed to suffer this month on account of the ways of the Share brokers. It is high time the business-like method is introduced in the bazaar to avoid much annoyance.—Yours, etc.,

POONA WATER SUPPLY.

CITY AND CANTONMENT CONTRACTS'

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—I shall be much obliged if you will please publish the following few lines regard ing the sanitation and water supply of the Poona city in your esteemed paper.

With the onset of the monsoon the Poona season commenced, the season of ill-health and increasing mortality, the season of cholera, dysentry, diarrhoea and malaria for the Poona city also commenced. The reason for the sudden fall in the health of the city at this time of the year, is not far to seek. The contrast which the Poona Cantonment affords to the city in this respect makes it too plain and obvious. The unclean and unwholesome water supply in the city is the real cause. With the first few showers the pipe-water puts on the colour of the rain water in the gutters. It has all the impurities, the ingredients of mud and dirt which the water in the canals and small rivers has after the first few rains. Even after boiling this unclean water refuses to give up colour, its bad taste and harmful properties. Every body knows that this dirty water supply is the cause of all the diseases and deaths in the city during this season year after year. Will the city fathers or the Government or either move early in the matter and take necessary steps to improve the quality of the drinking water in the city.—Yours, etc.,

GOVERNMENT'S SANCTI...

A meeting of the Improvement Trust ... held yesterday Mr. E. G. Turner presiding when the Board recorded the Government sanction to Foras Road Street Scheme. The revised estimate of the cost of the scheme was Rs. 25,92,106.

"The excess of Rs. 2,15,106 over the original estimate is due mainly to the increased number of rooms (1,504 instead of 1,440, originally proposed) now proposed to be provided and to the rise in the rates of labour and material. The loss on the scheme consequent on this revision is not expected to exceed what was anticipated at the time the original estimate was sanctioned, since there is every probability of obtaining without difficulty a higher rent for the rooms and consequently a larger recoupment on the increased capital expenditure."

EVENTS IN TURKEY.

POSITION IN THRACE.

On both sides of the Straits there reigns at this moment the same state of anxious suspense, broken now and then by small but significant incidents of violence, wrote Mr. Perceval Landon from Constantinople to the "Daily Telegraph" in mail week. In In Thrace Jaffer Tayer is keeping his word that there shall be no outbreak unless the Greek troops attempt to force a way across the Maritza, though reports have come in of the pillage of a munition train on the railway which runs to the west of the ... ver, and is therefore on the "Greek" side of the boundary. In this connection it is necessary to remember that the Maritza flows between Kara-Agatch and Adrianople so that the presence of the Greeks at the former place is not what Jaffer Tayer is pleased to regard as a casus belli. In the event of a struggle breaking out anywhere risings will, of course, take place both in Eastern Thrace, and on the late Bulgarian territory. It is understood that the first hostile act of the Turks will be the destruction of the great bridge over the Maritza connecting Constantinople with Adrianople.

From the Asiatic shore a few isolated acts of hostility behind the Ismid line are reported, and a demonstration by an allied force has followed. Mustapha Kemal continues his savage reprisals against the anti-Nationalist Turks in the Ada Bazar ... but has expressed his willingness to ... at Angora.

American Negroes.

The Negroes in America are far from happy. Denied rights of citizenship they have to plod as hewers of wood and drawers of water. Several racial inequities have been imposed on them. The white people have not been quite square with them. But, at last, a happy wave has come in his favour. The Socialiste on their election manifesto have already pledged themselves to secure the poor souls "full civil, political, industrial and educational rights." The Federation of Labour "has requested the Railway Clerks to eliminate colour bar and give the Negro full membership" Georgia has gone still better, and, as Renter cabled the other day, selected Negro delegate.

Expulsion of Assemblymen.

Five elected representatives of the citizens of America on the New York Assembly have been expelled from the State Legislature for subscribing to Socialist doctrines. On January 7 these gentlemen were suspended, and committed to trial. The Judiciary Committee after a trial lasting from January 20 to March 9, handed in reports on March 30. The majority report "recommended expulsion, emphasizing the charge of disloyalty, condemning Socialists as a party, and recommending the enactment of laws denying to the Socialists the right of political party in the State.' Minority reports, of which there was quite a number argued against expulsion. However, the Assembly, after twenty-two hours of debate, voted for the expulsion of the Socialist members. THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

Wednesday, June 30, 1920.

LORD CHELMSFORD MUST GO.

"Now, gentlemen, whether I hold this office of judge a short or a long time, certainly if a large meeting of my native fellow-citizens passed such an opinion on me, I should retire immediately from this land and hide my head in shame and confusion." This is an extract from the charge to the jury given by the late Mr. Justice Green of the Bombay High Court in the Criminal Sessions in the famous Towers of Silence Case. The sentiment reveals the personality of a self-respecting and conscientious public servant. The recall of Lord Chelmsford from the exalted position of trust and responsibility, which he has abused more than once during his viceroyalty and never so glaringly as in connection with the horrors of the Martial Law regime of last year, has been demanded not by one public meeting alone, but by hundreds of large meetings of citizens of all classes throughout the country. It has been demanded by a full session of the Indian National Congress. Even the Moderates, after prolonged deliberation, deemed it necessary to pass something like a vote of censure on the part played by the Viceroy during and after the disturbances. The sub-committee of the Indian National Congress, after a patient and dispassionate survey of the circumstances, has come to the deliberate conclusion that his Excellency proved himself incapable of holding his high office and that his recall is an imperative necessity. To this unanimous voice of Indian public opinion, is now added the ri... voice of British ...ur, which ha... manded the ... Viceroy ... the only ... dia th... by ...

...nsibilities of the Government ...a and the Punjab Government in ...pect of the crimes of last year impossible. Not only did the Viceroy and the Government of India blindly surrender their judgment and abdicate their functions as the protectors of the people, but even when the full extent of the barbarities committed on the latter was brought to their notice, they steeled their hearts and refused to pay heed to the cries of suffering. The indictment of Lord Chelmsford, which the sub-committee of the Congress has made in its report, stands as unshaken to-day, after the publication of the Hunter Committee's report, as it did when it was made. It runs as follows:

His Excellency the Viceroy never took the trouble of examining the people's case. He ignored telegrams and letters from individual and public bodies. He endorsed the action of the Punjab Government without enquiry. He clothed the officials with indemnity in indecent haste. He never went to the Punjab to make a personal inquiry, even after the occurrences. He ought to have known, at least in May, everything that the various official witnesses have admitted, and yet he failed to inform the public or the Imperial Government of the full nature of the Jallianwala Bagh massacre, or the subsequent acts done under Martial Law. He became a party to preventing a noble and well-known English Christian of unimpeachable veracity in the person of Mr. C. F. Andrews from proceeding to the Punjab, whilst he was on his way, not to inflame passions, but simply to find out the truth. He allowed Mr. Thompson, the Chief Secretary to the Punjab Government, to indulge in distortion of facts and insult the Hon. Mr. Madan Mohan Malaviya, whose statements, made in the Council, have almost all been now proved to be true out of the mouths of the official witnesses t'emselves. He expressed such a callous indifference to popular feelings and betrayed such criminal want of imagination, that he would not postpone the death sentences pronounced by the Martial Law Tribunals, except after he was forced to do so by the Secretary of State for India. He seems to have closed his heart against further light by shutting out questions by a responsible member of the Council, like the Hon. Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya. He would not visit the Punjab for local inquiry.

Each one of the counts in this indictment has remained unchallenged since it was made. We do not think Lord Chelmsford has any answer to them except that he trusted "the men on the spot". But the world at large will never excuse the callous indifference which Lord Chelmsford showed when he declined even to visit the scenes of suffering and rejected the appeals for mercy from the vict...

despair. Lord Chelmsford has on more than one occasion rubbed the salt into the sores of the people and has not lost any opportunity of insulting their leaders when his thanks were due to them. Disregard of public opinion is writ large over his regime and he has done more than any other Viceroy, not even excepting Lord Curzon, to destroy the faith of the people of this country in the sense of fair-play and justice of Englishmen in India. His continuance in office is sure to prove a growing menace to the stability of the Empire. India demands with unanimous and no uncertain voice that Lord Chelmsford must go. Whether he goes of his own accord or compulsorily does not matter. But for the honour and safety of India as well as for the fair name of Great Britain he must go.

Notes of the Day.

The Bolsheviks and Baku.

What are the Bolsheviks doing in Baku? asks the "Morning Post." What are the British doing in Persia? ask Labourites and the supporters of the League of Nations. And while Prince Firouz is making Persia's position clear before the Council of the League of Nations and apparently protesting against both 'British and Bolshevik aggrandisement a certain M. Manassen, Consul for the Netherlands at Baku and Batoum has been giving his impressions of the Russian invasion of Baku on April 28. He calls nationalisation robbery in the vein of Proudhon, defining property as theft. But it must be remembered that M. Manassen was in charge "of the interests of the Royal Dutch and Shell Oil Combine" which naturally the Bolsheviks took over. It must have been very uncomfortable for M. Manassen; but it would be an interesting question to enquire as to how these Dutch Oil Companies obtained control of the oil resources of Baku which originally belonged to Russia. Perhaps Proudhan was after all right when he defined all property as theft.

SYRIA AND ARABIA.

DO THEY WANT FRENCH AND BRITISH?

AN ARAB DEPUTY'S PLAIN SPEAKING.

The "Modern Review" quotes from "An Arab Deputy" who has written in the ... of "Le Populaire", February 16 ... on the condition of Syria and Arabia ... throws considerable light on the eager ... of the peoples of those countries to be ...ed in the arts of civilised Government by their French and British Trustees. This "Arab Deputy" says:—

"Your great official organ of France, "Le Temps", constantly denies the truth of events that are occurring in Syria.

"It goes without saying that, after having assured the French people a thousand times that the Syrians are seeking France, it is difficult for that journal, as for any of its imperialist clientele to confess that the Syrians are vigorously resisting foreign occupation.

For several months such papers have been trying to prove to the people whom they have constantly deceived, that the popular protests against the French occupation were due solely to an underground English propaganda. That legend is proved false by the simple fact that English occupation is even more hated by the Arabs than that of the French, and that the resistance to the English at several places in Arabia and Mesopotamia is more obstinate than that which the French have anywhere encountered.

"In England public opinion is beginning to see through the deceptions of its imperialist press, which has tried to persuade it that the Arabs would love nothing better than to have the Union Jack fly over them. Let us hope that French opinion in its turn will open its eyes.

Arabs and Syrians do not want the French and the British.

"Both the French and the English should know once for all that the Arabs are joined by a common religion with the Turks, and have been politically identified with them for centuries and therefore do not wish to separate themselves from their fellow-believers and brothers in arms merely to submit to the domination of a European nation, no matter what form the latter's suzerainty may assume.

"There is a good deal of talk about Emir Faisal. That plays no part in our demand for complete independence. Not only his ... to consent to any curtailment ... pendence.

CONSPIRACY.

... is very angry because some ...pers in Cario have publish... Syria. It claims that since ...ers have refrained from telling ...appening in Egypt, the Eng... it to keep silent about the ...yria. It assumes an air of ...glish: 'We might have made ... disgraceful doings in Egypt, ... not done so out of regard for ... Now why do you not treat us ... footing.' That paper gives the ... understand that opposition to ...ich is directed equally against the ..., and it urges that the Allies must maintain a solid front in the Near East—that is, a united front for the purpose of oppressing the weak and helpless.

"This is perfectly logical, if you intend to follow the policy of political bandits, but what is it from the standpoint of truly French principles? Those disturbances are not due to brigands. Of course, there may have been robberies and all that, but they have no connection with the resistance being offered by the people of Syria to foreign occupation. There have been no battles or even heavy skirmishes, but that is because the men in charge, the real leaders, have never ceased to counsel patience until it is known what the Peace Conference decides with regard to Syria.

PEOPLE'S DETERMINED RESISTANCE.

But still there have been cases of armed resistance as will appear from the description of one given below.

At Mergeioun, where the French commander at the suggestion of a few native Christians, conceived the odd idea of raising the French flag over the minaret of the mosque, there was lively fighting. In one of these conflicts the French troops lost 160 killed, two cannon, and several machine-guns. On two separate occasions irregular Arab forces have taken French prisoners, but the government of Damascus hastened to return the latter, 40 in number. General Gouraud sent several battalions to Mergeioun to restore his authority there, but they were unable to advance because volunteers rushed in from every direction under Emir Mahmoud Al Faour. While affairs were in this state Emir Faisal arrived, and comparative peace was ensured because the people expected that he would be in a position to assure their complete independence without reservations. Emir Faisal expressed himself very definitely on this point from the moment he arrived at Beirut. He thus calmed the people, who had begun to threaten his expulsion if he consented to any sort of a protectorate or compromised in the slightest their claim to independence.

SYRIAN CHRISTIANS AND THE MANDATE.

The following information as to how the Christians in these provinces take French Mandate will prove interesting:—

"In Lebanon, which is for the most part Maronite and more Catholic and Papist than the Pope himself, the French authorities attempted to replace several civilian functionaries and even Judges, without consulting the administrative Council, which is a sort of legislative assembly there. This body protested with energy, repeating that even the Turks themselves had never presumed to interfere directly with the local government of Lebanon. Both in that state and the adjoining territory the Turks respected the native courts and the independence of local civil and military authorities. They asserted that the people of Lebanon did not understand French co-operation to imply political control, but merely technical and financial aid to the extent that the people themselves desired.

This protest by the Administrative Council of Lebanon, which is the only official body in Syria that has agreed to a French mandate, and has done so solely because it is anti-Mussulman, was published in an Arabian journal printed by the Maronites, which is employed as an official organ by the authorities in occupation. The French representatives thereupon suspended this paper for having ventured to publish a protest by the National Assembly where the words 'complete independence' were employed.

"If the 250,000 or 300,000 Maronites, who are ordinarily such fanatical supporters of French and Catholism, are so jealous of their independence, what about the 4,000,000 Mussulmans and the 400,000 'Orthodox' Christians of that province?

"It is no use for M. Millerand to say: 'We have never thought of trespassing in any respect upon the independence of these people.' No one is deceived by such statements as that.

"The armistice was signed in accordance with the conditions proclaimed by Mr. Wilson, but as soon as Germany and its allies were helpless the promises of the armistice were trodden under foot, as well as the Fourteen Points.

ARABS AND TURKS REUNITE.

"Such a violation of the promises of complete independence, so prodigally made to the Arabs on so many occasions, has resulted in reuniting closer than ever the Arabs and the Turks. It has taken but a few months to restore that intimacy.

"After the armistice the Arabian state of Damascus, wearied of the war, abolished obligatory military service and hoped to maintain domestic order with a simple constabulary.

"They thought, 'We are now independent under the protection of a European alliance or the League of Nations. We do not want to conquer other people, and no one will be permitted to conquer us. Therefore, let us do away with this useless waste.'

"But, seeing the greed of the Allied powers, they now think it necessary to have more than a little army of 15,000 troops which, together with the tribes already armed, would normally be able to defend them. So, after the agreement entered into between Lloyd George and Clemenceau, which opened their eyes to the kind of 'good faith' with which they were to be treated, they decided to restore obligatory military service, which will give that little country 150,000 fighting men, all trained during the late war with the Turkish forces and all equipped and armed from the German arsenals which were left in their midst. ... and peoples throughout that whole region, their numbers are very large, and they are all armed and resolute.

"It is probable that France, by maintaining an army of 150,000 men in Syria, and by spending many billions of francs, will be able to subdue the Syrian Arabians. But that will not finish the task. The interior of that country borders upon other lands inhabited by Arabs, Kurds, and Turks: and by the immense desert. In starting a conflict with 4,000,000 Syrians, France will be making enemies of 15,000,000 Arabs in the Levant, most of whom are armed tribes, without including the other Mahommedan peoples who are speedily acquiring solidarity and organization under the blows that are being dealt them by the Entente.'

The concluding paragraph of the article is worth quoting.

"If you believe that I am exaggerating; all you have to do is to investigate the facts yourself. But what good will it do to confirm the truth too late, and after floods of blood have flowed? Imperialism, greed of conquest—those are the things that caused the Great War, where after four years of fighting one group has crushed the other; but this victory has cost so dearly that victors and vanquished alike are involved in a common ruin. It looks as if this lesson, the most tremendous in history, has not taught us.

FAMINE RELIEF.

NATIONAL MISSIONARY COUNCIL'S WORK.

Owing to the failure of the rains in 1918 and consequent widespread famine conditions, which prevailed in India, the National Missionary Council, India, appointed a Committee to appeal for distributing relief, through provincial committees, in the distressed areas. During the period from January 1919 to May 1920 the Committee was able to collect Rs. 3,20,56-8-0. The following balance sheet speaks for the activities of the Committee:

Receipts: United States, per "Christian Herald" Rs. 1,72,923-8-7; United States Direct Rs. 25; Canada, per India Famine Relief Committee Rs. 1,37,627-6-11; India and Ceylon Rs. 8,137-4-3; Great Britain Rs. 552-15-0; Australia Rs. 229-5-6; Burma Rs. 212-8-0; Arabia Rs. 200; China Rs. 55-4-9; Interest Rs. 538-11-0; Total Rs. 3,20,512.

Rs. 34,412 2-0 are till now subscribed to the fund started by the Gujerat Sabha, Ahmedabad, to help the famine-stricken people of Orissa. Out of this sum Rs. 34,000 are sent to the treasurer of the Orissa Famine Relief Fund.

The death is reported of Lieut.-Col. W. D. Sutherland C.I.E., M.D., Imperial Serologist and Chemical Examiner to Government at the Prince of Wales Hospital, Calcutta, where he was undergoing treatment and operated upon for appendicitis.

AMRITSAR MASSACRE.

THE EAST'S EXAMPLE.

"Foreign Affairs," the official organ of the Union of Democratic Control of England, edited by Mr. E. D. Morrel, publishes Rabindranath's famous message to his countrymen with the following introduction:—

[We esteem it a privilege to publish, as our readers throughout the world will to peruse, the noble message to his countrymen which the Poet, Rabindranath Tagore, has sent to us. It will be remembered that Rabindranath Tagore resigned the knighthood conferred upon him by the British Government some years ago, as a protest against the deeds of violence and outrage committed against his countrymen. To them he appeals to-day—not to nourish dreams of retaliation in their hearts, not to imitate the deeds of their oppressors: but to cast themselves upon the Infinite, and to wipe out the innocent blood in prayer. What an example does East thus give to West. Can the British Authorities remain unmoved by this appeal of the Indian sage and poet to his countrymen? Will they not respond to its spirit? What an opportunity is theirs to-day!—Ed. "Foreign Affairs."]

A great crime has been done in the name of law in the Punjab. Such terrible eruptions of evil leave their legacy of the wreckage of ideals behind them. What happened in Jallianwala Bagh was itself a monstrous progeny of a monstrous wave which for four years had been defiling God's world with fire and poison, physical and moral. The immenseness of the sin through which humanity had waded across its blood-red length of agony has bred callousness in the minds of those who have power in their hands with no check of sympathy within or fear of resistance without. The cowardliness of the powerful who owned no shame in using their machines of frightfulness upon the unarmed and unwarned villagers, and inflicting unspeakable humiliations upon their fellow beings behind the screen of an indecent mockery of justice and yet not feeling for a moment that it was the meanest form of insult to their own manhood, has become only possible through the opportunity which the late war had given to man for constantly outraging his own higher nature, trampling truth and honour underfoot.

This disruption of the basis of civilisation will continue to produce a series of moral earthquakes, and men will have to be ready for still further sufferings. That the balance will take a long time to be restored is clearly seen by the suicidal ferocity of vengefulness ominously tinging red the atmosphere of peace deliberations.

But we have no place in these orgies of triumphant powers rending the world into bits according to their own purposes. What most concerns us is to know that the moral degradation not only pursues the people inflicting indignities upon the helpless, but also their victims. The dastardliness of cruel injustice, confident of its impunity is ugly and mean, but the fear and important anger which they are apt to breed upon the minds of the weak are no less abject.

Brothers, when physical force in its arrogant faith in itself tries to crush the spirit of man, then comes the time for him to assert that his soul is indomitable. We shall refuse to be afraid and to own moral defeat by cherishing in our hearts foul dreams of retaliation. The time has come for the victims to be the victors in the field of righteousness. When brother spills the blood of his brother and exults in his sin, giving it a high sounding name, when he tries to keep the blood stains fresh on the soil as a memorial of his anger, then God in shame conceals it under his green grass and the sweet purity of his flowers.

We who have witnessed the wholesale slaughter of the innocent in our neighbourhood—let us accept God's own office and cover the bloodstains of iniquity with our prayer:

Rudra, yad te dakshinam mukham tena mam pahi nityam.

With thy graciousness, O Terrible, for ever save us.

For the true grace comes from the Terrible who can save our soul from fear of suffering and death in the very midst of terror, and from vindictiveness in defiance of injury. Let us take our lesson from his hand even when the smart of the pain and insult is still fresh,—the lesson that all meanness, cruelty, and untruth are for the obscurity of oblivion, and only the noble and true are for eternity.

Let those who wish, try to burden the minds of the future with stones carrying the black memory of wrongs and their anger, but let us bequeath to the generations to come memorials of that only which we can revere—let us be grateful to our forefathers who have left us the image of our Buddha who conquered self, preached forgiveness, and spread his love far and wide in time and space.

REVIVING 17TH CENTURY STATECRAFT.

"Foreign Affairs" writes:—

The last item in the process of carving up the world on the basis of Mr. Asquith's and Sir Edward Grey's Secret Treaties of 1915-16 has now been settled to the satisfaction, at any rate, of British and Greek imperialism; and the process of Empire building goes merrily on while Europe starves and America withdraws herself into disgusted isolation at the spectacle of European imperial statesmen reviving seventeenth century statecraft. The British people are saddled by the Turkish settlement with yet vaster political and territorial responsibilities, and Lord Curzon's old dictum that the western boundary of India was the Euphrates has been exceeded by the facts. It is to-day the Mediterranean. To the British Empire of the East is now added the British Empire of the Middle East. Insatiable, indeed, is the lust of Empire among the ruling classes of Britain. Before the war we had as much, more, indeed, than we could adequately manage. To-day the point has been reached when our people are like to die of a surfeit of Empire, faced as they must needs be with increased military and naval expenditure as the result of the recent acquisitions, with the prospect, now, we fear, inevitable, of a further competition in navalism, this time with the United States and Japan; with Ireland in a state of war, Egypt kept down only by force, and India seething with discontent.

THE OLD IMPERIAL GAME.

Greece, too, becomes an Empire under this Turkish Treaty, and, again, at the cost of the British taxpayer. For it is clear that modern British statescraft aims at making her the Japan of the Near East, a more docile and an easily directed Japan, moving in the British imperial orbit. And this, too, will be a costly affair for the British people, although doubtless an excellent bargain for British armament manufacturers. For Greece must now arm to the teeth to retain what she has acquired, and, doubtless, we shall get the bulk of her orders. Henceforth must she be prepared to face a hostile Bulgaria, who will never rest content with Bulgarian Thrace in Greek hands, a hostile Turkey, and a jealous Italy. Great, indeed, are the blessings which M. Venizelos has showered upon his countrymen. The dismemberment of Turkey is complete, but Turkish nationalism is not yet a corpse, and there are signs that French imperialists might like to use it for their own ends, as the British and Germans did before them. Altogether a lively prospect. The other treaties were bad enough from the point of view of stabilising instability in Europe. But the Turkish Treaty creates as many potential wars as it contains clauses. It destroys the last illusions which might still have been entertained by the optimistic as to the existence of a new spirit and a new heart in the statesmanship of Europe; or as to the reality of the League of Nations. The immense sufferings of the peoples, sufferings brought about by the incompetence and evils of the statesmen, have taught the latter nothing. Every settlement of the war they have set their hands to has been marked by the ethics of the brigand. The League of Nations was flung the Armenian bone and declined to gnaw it; for the rest it was not even consulted, the Government concerned, themselves distributing—to themselves—the mandate the "League" is supposed to convey, just as they did with the German dependencies in Africa.

MUSOORIE.

PROPOSED MOTOR CAR SERVICE.

(From our own Correspondent.)

MUSSOORIE, June 28.

The breaking of monsoon in Mussoorie has blocked the cart road to the plains and delayed the departure of the first motor car which has ever been seen in this hill station. The car is a four seater standard pattern Ford in charge of Mr. D. D. Homsworth, manager of the Rusa Engineering Works, Delhi, and the visit is due to the proposal that a motor car service should be introduced on an extended scale, not merely for transport up hill when the motor road is finished but in order to replace rickshaws in the station itself. Passenger traffic at Mussoorie is at present dealt with by some two hundred rickshawa and the coolie scarcity, this year is marked. The number of four seated cars required to replace and deal with the growth of traffic in estimated at hundred or one hundred fifty over all. The road dimensions of the car are only a little in excess of double rickshaw with coolies. The introduction of cars would require the road widened and bringing over the sharp bends. The former would cost one lakh of rupees and spread over four years, while the six hundred feet tunnell under the convent would cut off two miles of road between the town and the Mackinnon park area and would bring seven additional miles of uat road within the close reach of the town. Experimental runs between Landour Bazaar and Herndale show the four miles can be done in ten minutes, the hills presenting no difficulty in its journey into Mussoorie. The car did the distance in one hour, six miles being by the new motor road and the remaining [illegible] the cart road the grading and some of the bends on the motor road are described as bad, the car having to be lifted round some of the bends. The cart road was better in this respect in spite of boulders on the track.

MADRAS LANDLORDS' PROTEST.

(Associated Press.)

MADRAS, June 28.

At a meeting of the Madras Landlords' and House-owners' Association, resolutions were adopted protesting against the proposed Rent Restriction Bill and appointing a deputation to wait upon H. E. the Governor-in-Council with a memorial.

SORROWS OF SINDH!

To the Editor of "The Chronicle."

Sir,—There are few Bombayites, who are fully aware of the various grievances under which our countrymen are groaning in Sindh, perhaps because we are divided by deserts and by demagogues! For, Sir,

(1) There is no other Province in India, where the bureaucracy is vested with such extra-ordinary powers!

(2) Where autocracy is in evidence in various parts and in various forms!

(3) Where the strength of the C.I.D. is considerable!

(4) Where political agitation has been often thwarted!

(5) Where the views and warnings of the leaders have been lightly treated!

(6) Where courtiers swiftly spring to support the Bureaucracy!

(7) Where anti-Khilafat agitation originated and existed with the help of some officials!

(8) Where officers, high and low, and their staff receive free supplies of food while on tour!

(9) Where officers claim and enjoy free supply of labour, while on their rounds!

(10) Where the revenue officers extract a share of the produce from the ryots!

(11) And where the voice of the people is lost in the deserts of Sindh and of Cutch, so that Simla and Bombay are hardly moved!

It is now high time, that the powers of the bureaucracy in Sindh were revised; that a spirit of liberalism were introduced into the administration; and that the grievances of the people were speedily redressed.—Yours, etc.

KATHIAWAR STATES' SUBJECTS.

PROPOSED POLITICAL CONFERENCE.

The following letter has been addressed by Mr. M. L. Mehta, to the leaders of Kathiawar, as regards the proposed Kathiawad Political Conference:—

Dear Sir,—I beg to send herewith the accompanying memo giving a list of some of the most important political and economic problems of Kathiawad. If the people of different places of Kathiawad discuss them, it is quite possible that many problems may well be solved. For such a purpose the most proper thing would be, in my humble opinion, as well as that of other friends, to convene a Conference of the people of Kathiawad and call it "The Kathiawad Political Conference." If you concur with this idea, please reply after fully thinking and discussing the following questions with the leaders of your place:—

(1) Does this idea of holding a Conference appear proper to you and to other leaders of your place?

(2) In case such a Conference is held, how many gentlmen of your place will be in a position to attend it and take active part in the deliberations of the same?

(3) What place, do you think is convenient for the same?

(4) If the Conference be held, what necessary and other contributions will be ready to make?

(5) How many gentlemen from your place will be prepared to take an active part in organising the same?

(6) What time i.e., part of the year will be suitable in your opinion for holding the same?

I hereby let you know for your and your people's information that this movement though political in character aims at strengthening the States of Kathiawad, i.e., this Conference will work in the interests and for the welfare of the rulers and the ruled and consequently all discussions therein shall be on constructive lines. This movement will never become hostile either to the Agency or to the States, and hence you as well as other gentlemen of your place may well join this Conference. This is such a movement as can be welcomed even by the Agency and States officers, and it is my humble wish that the Conference may be attended by the Princes and the Hon. Agent to the Governor in Kathiawad and other officers.

I shall inform you of the final decision arrived at, after receiving due replies to the above questions and the additional suggestions if any, from you as well as from other friends.

If anybody wishes to volunteer his services in carrying out this scheme, he will please write to Mr. Manushkhlal Ranajibhai Mehta, Civil Station, Rajkot.

The following is the memorandum:—

(1) How to secure the popular voice in the administration of the Agency and the Native States of Kathiawad. (2) How to spend the wealth and utilize the revenue of the States in such a way that it may benefit both the [illegible] of revenue. (4) The establishment of local Government in the Agency and the States. (5) The necessity of giving voice to the people in the legislature. (6) Deliberations regarding the judicial system of the Agency and the States. (7) Questions as regards the Education in Kathiawad. (8) The betterment of arts, industries and commerce of Kathiawad. (9) Deliberations concerning the different departments, such as police, medical and municipal, which directly bear connection with the interests of the public. (10) Discussions about putting the education of heir-apparents and the kumars under the direct care and supervision of the learned men of the country. (11) About freedom of press in Kathiawar. (12) About establishing popular assemblies and strengthening the Mahajans. (13) About the complets conforts and conveniences of Railways and steamers. (14) The spread of Swadeshism. (15) Improving the conditions and status of low-paid and middle class servants. (16) Bettering the position of Girasias and other military communities. (17) High prices. (18) The improvement of cultivation and interests of cultivators. (19) Labour. (20) The renovation of handicrafts.

THE FUTURE OF EGYPT.

NATIONALIST LEADER IN LONDON.

Saad Zaghlul Pasha, the Egyptian Nationalist leader and head of the Egyptian Nationalist delegation to this country to meet the Prime Minister and Lord Milner to discuss the future of Egypt, arrived in London from Paris on June 5.

Whilst the British Mission was in Egypt Zaghlul and his followers declined to have any dealings with it, and Lord Milner and his colleagues returned without meeting the Nationalist representatives. Meanwhile Zaghlul and his followers continued to maintain their uncompromising demand for full independence. About a week ago, however, three of Zaghlul's chief lieutenants came to London, and it was announced that the Milner Mission would not report until there had been an opportunity of conferring with them.

When Zaghlul Pasha reached Victoria Station on Saturday evening he was greeted by an enthusiastic body of about 200 of his countrymen, representing the Egyptian Association of Great Britain and Ireland, the Egyptian Club, and the Egyptian Colony in London, and including students from the Universities of Manchester, Birmingham, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Liverpool, and Ireland. They were headed by the Egyptian national flag, and carried the Cross and Crescent and many miniature flags. An address of welcomb was delivered on the platform, and shouts of "Long live independence for Egypt!" "Long live Zaghlul Pasha!" were raised by the demonstrators as the leader drove away in a motor-car to the Carlton Hotel.—"The Manchester Guardian."

The Stewart Vacuum System

Provides a Perfect Feed.

Over eighty-five per cent of car manufacturers have adopted the Stewart Vacuum System as standard equipment for their cars. If your car hasn't it, it can be easily installed.

The Stewart Vacuum System has proven one of the most important inventions in the motor world. It insures an absolutely perfect flood of petrol to the carburettor under all conditions. It has revolutionised automobile design, making possible the beautiful streamline effects.

It is the only perfect petrol feed system and should be on every car; your's too.

The Vacuum System consists of a small tank, mounted on engine side of dash as in sketch. This tank is divided into two chambers, upper and lower. The upper chamber is connected to the intake manifold, while another pipe connects it with the main petrol supply tank. The lower chamber is connected with the carburettor.

The intake strokes of the motor create a vacuum in the upper chamber of the tank, and this vacuum draws petrol from the supply tank to the upper chamber.

BRITISH WITHDRAWAL IN PERSIA.

PERSIAN COSSACKS AT RESHT.

The Moscow Wireless, in a message dated Tuesday, June 8 says:—

During the night of June 5 a Provisional Government was formed in Resht, headed by the experienced fighting revolutionary leader Mirza Kutchuk. The revolution in Resht was warmly greeted by the local population.

The British are hurriedly retreating to Bagdad, and have abandoned Resht without fighting, as the Indian troops were opposed to fighting against the revolutionaries. A considerable part of the Indian troops are alleged to have gone over to Mirza Kutchuk.

Resht is 14 miles south-east of the port of Enzeli, on the Caspian Sea. The population is about 25,000.

Moscow further states that a division of Persian Cossacks has gone over to Mirza Kutchuk. The latter has notified Lenin of the revolution.—"The Manchester Guardian."

SULTAN OF EGYPT.

The following letter appears in the "Daily Telegraph" in mail week:—

Sir,—Englishmen who have lived abroad know that our Government and their representatives on the spot are regarded, often without any justification, as being too prone to sacrifice their friends in order to conciliate an opposition. There is a strong feeling, particularly in Egypt, that would not stand by our friends with that staunchness which they have shown in supporting us in times of difficulty, and this view has become accentuated by an attack a distinguished writer has recently made on the Sultan. The letter has had a disturbing effect in Egypt, and it is looked upon as another illustration of the way Britain lets down her own friends.

The writer seizes upon the recognition by his Majesty's Government of the Sultan's infant son Faruk as heir to the Egyptian Sultanate to make a strong personal attack on the Sultan. Those Egyptians who appreciate the value of the work Great Britain has done in their country, and who would regret seeing it violently interrupted, are greatly concerned at any encouragement given to Nationalist intriguers. While wild talk by students and others is of little concern, the appearance of a letter signed by a well-known name lends powerful support to persons who will use it as an expression of average British opinion, and it will provide an opportunity to those in Egypt who deem it necessary to work up popular manifestations in order to rekindle the flagging interest among the public in the Nationalist propaganda. For this reason a letter appearing in the British Press so strongly expressive of a personal view is deplored by the majority of those who know the state of feeling in Egypt and the use to which the letter will be put.

The British Government made Prince Fouad Sultan of Egypt. He has been absolutely loyal to his engagements and obligations, and as if the object of Nationalist attacks has become accepted the succession of Sultan Hussein offered by our Government, he [illegible] the future of the British. The Sultan is in a significant position of having to try to keep [illegible] in hand at a time when [illegible] to be adopted in Egypt [illegible] consideration, but he has [illegible] course [illegible] not take [illegible] partisan attitude. If, [illegible] to his engagements renders him [illegible] with certain number of [illegible] claim to represent opinion, it should be a reason why all Britons should extend to him their cordial support and encouragement. An attack on the Sultan in the British Press at the present time is peculiarly unfortunate.

As a matter of fact, the recognition of the infant Prince as heir to the Sultanate follows precedent. The Khedive Ismail obtained from Turkey the acknowledgment of direct hereditary succession, and therefore, in recognising the Sultan's eldest son as heir we are carrying on the old tradition in the Khediviate. Not to have recognised Prince Faruk as heir would have been to appear to disown the Sultan.

Reference was made in the published letter to the Sultan's "deplorable lack of judgment," in that he "seized the occasion of his birthday to introduce into the solemn Friday service in the mosques a new prayer for his personal glorification as a model of all the virtues," with the result that there were disturbances in some mosques on March 26. These are the facts: The sermon at the Friday services usually consists of a general exhortation to piety and a prayer for the Khalif of the Moslems, but since the beginning of the war the name of the Khalif has been omitted. In the formula of prayers sent out by the Ministry of Pious Foundations to be used on March 26, a prayer in which blessings were invoked for Fouad, Sultan of Egypt, was substituted for the general exhortation to piety. The prayer had been printed at the Ministry a few days previously, and copies had got into the hands of some of the students, who held a meeting on the day preceding the services and decided to send groups to the various mosques to make demonstrations. At the point in the service when Sultan Fouad's name was mentioned, the carefully organised demonstrations occurred, the students howling down the preachers, who, in most cases, did not reach the second prayer. The students carried their demonstrations into the streets, adopting their usual practice of breaking the windows of tramcars, but the situation was easily dealt with by the police.

It is plain this was an engineered disturbance. The members of the Legislative Assembly and others had received copies of circular letters urging them not to attend the birthday celebrations of the "false Sultan," and the decision of the students to send parties to the mosques makes it obvious that the disaffected were anxious to embrace any opportunity for making a demonstration against the Sultan. Even supposing—an assumption by no means proved—the Sultan, in a matter entirely between himself and his people, should have made a mistake, or have acted inopportunely, we ought to be the last to add to his embarrassments. This is what the letter certainly does.—I am, Sir, etc.,
